

I do not agree with the CBA attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If you are so concerned with family values please make sure our family time is not disturbed.